

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Beth Hellwig, Ph.D.

INTERIM ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT FOR CAREER AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

UNDERGRADUATE CAREER SERVICES

504 DUNCAN STUDENT CENTER

UNDERGRADCAREERS.ND.EDU | 574-631-5200

Coordinates a broad range of career-related services through a team of experienced career advisors on behalf of all undergraduate students studying any major and pursuing any career path. Among a variety of career development opportunities, Undergraduate Career Services provides career advising, resume reviews, workshops, presentations, and mock interviews

GRADUATE CAREER SERVICES

NORTH SUITE 528, DUNCAN STUDENT CENTER

GRADCAREERS.ND.EDU | 574-631-5202

Provides career consultations and career development resources for master's degree and doctoral students in Graduate School-affiliated programs. Through Graduate Career Consultants, Graduate Career Services works in collaboration with departments, programs, and faculty advisors to connect students with a broad range of career services and resources.

CAMPUS MINISTRY

Rev. Peter McCormick, C.S.C.

ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT FOR CAMPUS MINISTRY

CAMPUS MINISTRY

FIRST AND THIRD FLOORS, COLEMAN-MORSE CENTER

CAMPUSMINISTRY.ND.EDU | 574-631-7800

Ministers faithfully and fervently to all students, regardless of denomination or faith tradition and inspires students to engage others about their faith while discovering their most authentic selves. Campus Ministry also encourages participation in the sacramental and liturgical life of the Church; offers opportunities for small group discussions, pilgrimages, retreats, and service; aids in personal and vocational discernment; supports worship and personal prayer; and provides pastoral care.

BELONGING AND ENGAGEMENT

Doug Thompson, Ph.D.

ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT FOR BELONGING AND ENGAGEMENT

SISTER THEA BOWMAN CENTER

224 LAFORTUNE STUDENT CENTER

BOWMANCENTER.ND.EDU | 574-631-2993

Provides a welcoming environment where students can foster a culture of belonging and engagement at Notre Dame. The Center also offers a variety of beautiful spaces and conference rooms for casual interactions and organized student events and activities, including a centrally-located community kitchen that periodically introduces students to food from local restaurants and vendors.

BELONGING AND ENGAGEMENT (CONT.)

GENDER RELATIONS CENTER

222 LAFORTUNE STUDENT CENTER

GRC.ND.EDU | 574-631-9340

Helps to foster dialogue on issues of sexuality, gender, and healthy relationships consistent with the Catholic character of the University. Committed to the spiritual, emotional, and intellectual development of all students, the Gender Relations Center seeks to engage the campus in respectful dialogue and build a community that fully honors the human dignity of every student.

MULTICULTURAL STUDENT PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

215 LAFORTUNE STUDENT CENTER

MSPS.ND.EDU | 574-631-6841

Works to ensure all students feel welcome and supported at Notre Dame and have access to necessary opportunities and resources. Multicultural Student Programs and Services also supports students' holistic development by offering academic services and a wide range of cultural enrichment programming to all students who would like to explore questions of identity, diversity, and race.

OFFICE OF STUDENT ENRICHMENT

221 LAFORTUNE STUDENT CENTER

STUDENTENRICHMENT.ND.EDU | 574-631-8639

Offers programming and resources for members of the Notre Dame community who identify with the first-generation college and/or lower-income undergraduate student experience, including international, transfer, DreamND, and other non-traditional background students.

RESIDENTIAL LIFE

Karen Kennedy, M.A.

ASSOCIATE VICE PRESIDENT FOR RESIDENTIAL LIFE

RESIDENTIAL LIFE

202 DUNCAN STUDENT CENTER

RESIDENTIALLIFE.ND.EDU | 574-631-5878

A central tenant of the Notre Dame experience, Residential Life reflects the University's intentional, long-standing Catholic, Holy Cross mission to form communities that are dedicated to the intellectual, moral, and spiritual development of each individual; inclusive of all members; and characterized by a collective sense of care and concern for the common good and service to others.

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT

M. Brian Coughlin, M.A.

ASSOCIATE VICE PRESIDENT FOR STUDENT DEVELOPMENT

OFFICE OF COMMUNITY STANDARDS

305 MAIN BUILDING

COMMUNITYSTANDARDS.ND.EDU | 574-631-5551

Educates the campus community on expectations for student conduct and administers formative and developmentally-based opportunities rooted in the Catholic, Holy Cross tradition to challenge students to reflect on their choices, take responsibility for their actions, and understand the balance between the needs of the individual as well as the University community.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT (CONT.)

FAMILY RESOURCE CENTER

100 BEICHNER HALL
FRC.ND.EDU | 574-631-3000

Provides support services to married, parenting, and/or pregnant students to ensure all families thrive at Notre Dame. Through year-round educational and social programming, the Family Resource Center works with established University partners to connect Notre Dame's married, parenting, and/or pregnant students and their families with resources to enhance their intellectual, emotional, social, and spiritual formation.

UNIVERSITY BANDS

100 RICCI BAND REHEARSAL HALL
NDBAND.COM | 574-631-7136

Provides the opportunity for student musicians to participate in three concert bands, three jazz bands, section ensembles, varsity bands, and most notably the Band of the Fighting Irish, the University's marching band. Over the course of the academic year, the band hosts multiple concerts, provides music for University liturgies and Masses, and performs at numerous athletic events.

RECSPORTS

319 DUNCAN STUDENT CENTER
RECSPORTS.ND.EDU | 574-631-6100

Fosters positive social interaction through a variety of programs and services, including Intramural Sports, club sports, classes, and one-on-one training. The department works to enhance the overall Notre Dame experience while providing recreational and educational opportunities for transformative lifestyles.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES OFFICE

315 LAFORTUNE STUDENT CENTER
SAO.ND.EDU | 574-631-7308

Enhances student life at Notre Dame by providing spaces, resources, programs, and events to help students pursue their passions, explore their interests, find belonging, and grow as student leaders and employees. To help foster an environment that honors the holistic development of all students, the Student Activities Office supports hundreds of recognized student clubs and organizations, which encompass a wide range of academic, athletic, cultural, performing arts, social service, and special interest pursuits.

GRADUATE STUDENT LIFE

W206A, DUNCAN STUDENT CENTER
GRADLIFE.ND.EDU | 574-631-1221

Graduate Student Life operates within Student Activities Office and is the result of a strategic partnership between the Graduate School and the Division of Student Affairs. The goal of the office is to promote the success and well-being of Notre Dame graduate students by connecting them to campus resources, a vibrant and diverse community, and a holistic educational experience.

STUDENT MEDIA

SECOND FLOOR, DUNCAN STUDENT CENTER
LAURIE McFADDEN | LMCFADDE@ND.EDU | 574-631-9059

Aspiring media professionals and students interested in dabbling in the media world will find opportunities to immerse themselves in TV, print, radio, and emerging media platforms. Student media mediums include NDTV, Scholastic Magazine, the Dome Yearbook, The Juggler, WVFI, and WSND-FM.

STUDENT HEALTH AND WELLNESS

Christine Caron Gebhardt, Ph.D.

ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT FOR STUDENT HEALTH AND WELLNESS

CENTER FOR STUDENT SUPPORT AND CARE

228 COLEMAN-MORSE CENTER
STUDENTHEALTH.ND.EDU/SUPPORTANDCARE | 574-631-7833

CARE AND WELLNESS CONSULTANTS

An interdisciplinary team of student affairs professionals, Care and Wellness Consultants are trained in student wellness, mental health, and behavior management who can respond to reports of student concerns, problem-solve behavior issues, and determine next-step interventions.

SARA BEA ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES

Works with students with both visible and invisible disabilities to provide reasonable accommodations and ensure every student has equal access to the University's facilities and programs..

MCDONALD CENTER FOR STUDENT WELL-BEING

204 SAINT LIAM HALL
STUDENTHEALTH.ND.EDU/MCDONALDCENTER | 574-631-7970
Enhances student flourishing and embeds holistic well-being into every aspect of student life. Through health promotion, harm reduction, prevention education, and the cultivation of student leaders in well-being, the McDonald Center empowers all students to make healthy choices while inspiring a campus community to create a culture of well-being.

UNIVERSITY COUNSELING CENTER

THIRD FLOOR, SAINT LIAM HALL
STUDENTHEALTH.ND.EDU/UCC | 574-631-7336
Provides a safe, confidential, nonjudgmental space where students can explore a wide variety of issues and concerns. Services include crisis intervention, brief consultations, workshops, Drop-In services, group and individual counseling, psychiatric care for medication management, and referrals to off-campus treatment providers.

UNIVERSITY HEALTH SERVICES

FIRST AND SECOND FLOORS, SAINT LIAM HALL
STUDENTHEALTH.ND.EDU/UHS | 574-631-7497
A multidisciplinary team of providers, patient advocates, and professional caregivers, University Health Services provides patient-centered, confidential healthcare that meets the needs of Notre Dame students to minimize health related interruptions in their academic pursuits..